Test Transaction

To make sure that you are now ready to accept American Express, you will need to complete a test transaction. Your terminal will know that this is a test transaction, and as such this will not affect your end of day reconciliation. American Express will neither credit nor debit the amount that you enter.

- Press MENU twice
- Press SALE (F4)
- Key in the American Express Dummy Card No. 37 999 999 999 999 4 (check the terminal is asking for the card number first, as opposed to the sale amount)
- Key in the expiry date changing the date accordingly, for example 12/15
- Key in the correct TEST AMOUNT as detailed in the table on the right and press OK/ENTER.

Your terminal is now set up and ready to accept American Express Cards.

Remember to place your American Express stickers in your window and by your point of sale to let Cardmembers know that you welcome our Cards.
